ARTICLE I: Name

The name of this association is the Roosevelt Parent Teacher Association (PTA), located in Wauwatosa, Wisconsin. It is a local PTA unit organized under the authority of the Wisconsin Congress of Parents and Teachers (Wisconsin PTA), a branch of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers (National PTA).

#ARTICLE II: Purposes

Section 1. The purpose which this association will hereafter pursue are:

- a. To promote the welfare of children and youth in home, school, places of worship, and throughout the community;
- b. To raise the standards of home life;
- c. To secure adequate laws that further the education, physical and mental health, welfare, and safety of children and youth;
- d. To promote the collaboration and engagement of families and educators in the education of children and youth;
- e. To engage the public in united efforts to secure the physical, mental, emotional, spiritual, and social well-being of all children and youth;
- f. To advocate for fiscal responsibility regarding public tax dollars in public education funding.

Section 2. The purposes of the PTA are promoted through an advocacy and educational program directed toward parents, teachers, and the general public; are developed through conferences, committees, projects, and programs; and governed and qualified by the basic principles set forth in Article III.

Section 3. The association is organized exclusively for the charitable, scientific, literary or educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or corresponding section of any future federal tax code (hereinafter "Internal Revenue Code").

#ARTICLE III: Basic Principles

The following are basic principles of the National PTA, the Wisconsin PTA, and this association:

- Section 1. The association shall be noncommercial, nonsectarian, and nonpartisan.
- Section 2. The association shall work to engage and empower children, families and educators within schools and communities to provide quality education for all children and youth and shall seek to participate in the decision-making process by influencing school policy and advocating for children's issues, recognizing that the legal responsibility to make decisions has been delegated by the people to boards of education, state education authorities, and local education authorities.
- Section 3. The association shall work to promote the health and welfare of children and youth and shall seek to promote collaboration between parents, schools, and the community at large. The Wisconsin PTA or any of its divisions may cooperate with other associations and agencies concerned with child welfare, but PTA/PTSA representatives shall make no commitments that bind the group they represent.
- Section 4. Commitment to inclusiveness and equity, knowledge of PTA and professional expertise shall be the guiding principles for service in the association
- Section 5. No part of the net earnings of the association shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, directors, trustees, officers, or other private persons except that the association shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article II hereof.
- Section 6. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these articles, the association shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (i) by an organization exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or (ii) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code.
- Section 7. The association or members in their official capacities shall not, directly or indirectly, participate or intervene (in any way, including the publishing or distributing of statements) in any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office; or devote more than an insubstantial part of its activities to attempting to influence legislation by propaganda or otherwise.

#ARTICLE IV: Constituent Associations

Section 1. The constituent associations of National PTA include

- a. State constituent association of National PTA that have been established in the 50 states of the United States, the District of Columbia, the U.S. Virgin Islands, Puerto Rico, and the Department of Defense education activity schools established by the D. O. D. in the future hereinafter called state constituent associations; or
- b. Local constituent associations organized under the direct authority of National PTA when there is no state constituent association.
- c. Local constituent associations organized under the authority of state constituent associations.

Section 2. Qualifications.

- a. Constituent associations of National PTA are any group which:
 1. Meets the requirements established by the board of directors
 2. Agree to and complies with the Standards of Affiliation; and
 3. Is approved by the board of directors
- b. Local constituent association organized under the authority of the state constituent associations shall meet the qualification of the state constituent associations.

Section 3. Purposes and Principles. The purposes and principals of National PTA as prescribed in Articles II and III of National PTA bylaws, shall in every case also be the purposes and principals of each constituent association.

Section 4. Governance: Each constituent association shall adopt bylaws for the government of the association approved by the Wisconsin PTA. Such bylaws shall not be in conflict with National PTA or state PTA bylaws or Wisconsin nonprofit corporate laws and are subject to review by the Wisconsin PTA and National PTA Bylaws Committees.

Section 5. Membership in Constituent Associations. Membership in a PTA constituent association shall be open, without discrimination, to anyone who believes in and supports the mission, purposes, and principles of National PTA and pays dues as prescribed in Section 6 of this Article.

Section 6. Dues. Members shall pay annual dues, as may be determined by the constituent association, which shall include the portion to the local and state PTA constituent association as determined by the local and state PTA constituent associations, and the portion payable to National PTA as recommended by the board of directors and approved by a two-thirds vote of the voting body at a National PTA Annual Meeting.

Section 7. Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of this association, after paying or adequately providing for the debts and obligations of the association, the remaining assets shall be distributed to one or more nonprofit funds, foundations, or organizations that have established their tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and whose purposes are in accordance with those of the National PTA.

#ARTICLE V: Local Unit Status

Section 1. Local PTA/PTSAs shall be organized and chartered under the authority of the Wisconsin PTA, in conformity with such rules and regulations, not in conflict with the National PTA Bylaws, as the Wisconsin PTA may in its bylaws prescribe. The Wisconsin PTA shall issue to each local PTA/PTSA an appropriate charter evidencing the due association and good standing of the local PTA/PTSA.

Section 2. A local PTA/PTSA in good standing is one that:

- a Adheres to the purposes and basic principles of the PTA;
- b Consists of ten (10) or more members to organize a local unit and fifteen (15) or more members to sustain good standing status of existing unit;
- c Submits an officer list to Wisconsin PTA no later than September 15th;
- d Remits the state and national portion of the dues to the Wisconsin PTA annually;
- e Reviews or revises their bylaws every three (3) years and submits copies to the Wisconsin PTA Bylaws Committee for approval;
- f Audits the treasurer's books as specified in Article IX and submits the PTA audit form to the Wisconsin PTA by November 1st;

- g Submits proof of filing IRS required tax forms (either proof of online filing or by sending a copy of the completed forms) to Wisconsin PTA by December 15th.

Section 3. Each local PTA/PTSA shall keep such permanent books of account and records as shall be sufficient to establish the items of gross income, receipts and disbursements of the association, including, specifically, the number of its members, the dues collected from its members, and the amount of dues remitted to the Wisconsin PTA. Such books of account and records shall, at all reasonable times, be open to inspection by an authorized representative of the Wisconsin PTA or, where directed by the committee on state and national relationships, by a duly authorized representative of the National PTA.

Section 4. Each local PTA shall adopt bylaws for the government of the association as may be approved by Wisconsin PTA. Such bylaws shall not be in conflict with National PTA or Wisconsin PTA bylaws. Such bylaws shall include an article on amendments and shall include a provision establishing a quorum.

Section 5. The charter of a local PTA/PTSA shall be subject to withdrawal and the status of such association as a local PTA/PTSA shall be subject to termination, in the manner described in the bylaws and policy of the Wisconsin PTA.

Section 6. Each local PTA/PTSA is obligated, upon withdrawal of its charter by the Wisconsin PTA:

- a To yield up and surrender all of its books and records and all of its assets and property to the Wisconsin PTA or to another 501(c)3 organization approved by Wisconsin PTA;
- b To cease and desist from the further use of any name that implies or connotes association with the National PTA or the Wisconsin PTA;
- c To carry out promptly, under the supervision and direction of the Wisconsin PTA, all the necessary steps for the purpose of dissolving this PTA/PTSA; and
- d To lose its tax-exempt status as a local PTA/PTSA unit organized under the authority of the Wisconsin PTA.

#ARTICLE VI: Membership and Dues

- Section 1. Every individual who is a member of this association, organized under the authority of Wisconsin PTA, is also a member of the National PTA and of the Wisconsin PTA. Members of this association and National PTA shall be entitled to all the benefits of such membership which shall include the:
- a Ability to serve in governance positions in National PTA and Wisconsin PTA; and
 - b Right to vote at local, state and National PTA meetings based upon the requirement of serving as a voting delegate.
- Section 2. Membership in each PTA shall be open, without discrimination, to anyone who believes in and supports the mission and purposes of National PTA.
- Section 3. Each local PTA/PTSA shall conduct an annual enrollment of members but may admit individuals to membership at any time.

- Section 4. The membership year shall be established by the Wisconsin PTA Board of Directors.
- Section 5. Each member of this association shall pay annual dues as may be determined by the association.
- a Such annual dues shall include the portion of two dollars and twenty-five cents ($2.25) per member payable to the National PTA.
 - b Such annual dues shall include the portion of three dollars ($3.00) per member payable to the Wisconsin PTA.
- Section 6. The local unit treasurer shall keep the record for the national and state portions of the membership dues separate from the funds of the local PTA.
- Section 7. The state and national portion of the dues paid by each member shall be remitted to the Wisconsin PTA during the month in which they are collected.
- a If, by November 1, a local PTA/PTSA has failed to remit its first installment of annual dues, it will not be recognized as a PTA/PTSA in good standing for the current year and further service from the state office may be withheld. The local PTA/PTSA shall be contacted by the Wisconsin PTA to assess the status of the unit. If dues have not been submitted by June 30 of that membership year, the PTA shall no longer be considered an active PTA and their charter shall be evaluated for withdrawal.

- b The remittance to the Wisconsin PTA shall be accompanied by a report, in such form as may be required by the Wisconsin PTA, including the name and address of the president of the association, the amount of dues, and the names and contact information about the members of the association.

Section 8. PTA/PTSA membership is not transferable to another PTA/PTSA unit.

ARTICLE VII: Meetings of the Association

Section 1. Regular meetings of the association shall be held monthly during the school year on second Tuesday of the month, unless announced by the executive board, seven (7) days' notice having been given of change of date.

- c Special meetings of the executive board may be called by the president or by a majority of members of the board 7 days' notice having been given.

Section 7. Upon the expiration of the term of office or when individuals cease to hold the position that entitles them to be a member of the board, they shall automatically cease to be a member of the board and shall be relieved of all duties and responsibilities incident to such membership. All records, books and other materials pertaining to the position shall be turned over to the president within fourteen days and all funds pertaining to the position shall be returned to the treasurer immediately.

Section 8. When a board member fails to attend three (3) consecutive meetings without adequate excuse and/or notice or when a board member is not fulfilling the responsibilities of the office as prescribed in the bylaws, standing rules or principles or engages in conduct not in compliance with the goals and purpose of the PTA the executive board may by a two-thirds (2/3) ballot vote, take such action as the board deems appropriate, which may include a probation period, or asking for the resignation of the board member. The vote and outcome must be recorded in the executive board minutes. If removing a board member from the board who refuses to resign or if the board member disagrees with the decision, the executive board must make a formal written request to the Region Advisor or designated State Board member, before taking any action. A formal written request can also be submitted if the executive board chooses. A hearing panel of at least 3 members will be convened under the direction of the Region Advisor or designated State Board member. If the Region Advisor, or designated State Board member, is a member of the unit's executive board, the State President-elect will convene the hearing panel. The board member and unit officers will be given a written 15 day notice of the hearing meeting. The written notice will include the reasons for the panel. The board member will be given the opportunity to appear before the hearing panel. If the board member is unable to attend a written statement can be submitted. The hearing panel with a 2/3 majority will decide on an appropriate action. The hearing panel will notify the executive board of their recommendations in writing. The executive board will then document their action in the executive board meeting minutes and send a copy to the PTA office.

Section 9. Wisconsin PTA Review of Bylaws Violations and Misconduct Allegations

- a The state president and president-elect shall review any alleged violations by local PTAs or individual local/council officers of the bylaws of National PTA, the Wisconsin PTA or this association's bylaws or other practices or activities, including mismanagement of the unit and mishandling of funds, of local PTAs or PTA officer(s) that may tend to defeat the purposes and basic principles of the PTA, and shall promptly report to the state board of directors the results of such review and its recommendations for action.
- b The Wisconsin PTA Board of Directors shall give due consideration to the report and shall accord the local PTA or PTA officer(s) an opportunity to be heard and to respond to the report. If, upon such consideration and hearing, the Wisconsin PTA Board of Directors finds a violation by a local PTA or PTA officer(s), it may, by a two-thirds vote of all its members then in office, require the local PTA or PTA officer(s) to take appropriate action within a period of time stipulated by the Wisconsin PTA Board of Directors. When such a requirement has been made by the Wisconsin PTA Board of Directors, and if the recommended action is not taken by the local PTA or PTA officer(s) within the allotted time, the Wisconsin PTA Board of Directors may, by a two-thirds vote of all its members then in office, withdraw the charter of the local PTA and terminate its status as a local PTA or remove the PTA officer(s) from office.

ARTICLE XI: Committees
